

Gentleman's Award for Best Employment Opportunities and a Department of Cultural Resources Award for Best Incorporation of Cultural, Arts, and Historic Resources.

Finalist judges include representatives from the North Carolina Department of Cultural Resources, SAS, the NC Board of Examiners for Engineers and Surveyors, NCDOT and the Triangle Transit Authority.

First Gentleman Judges Future City Competition

First Gentleman Bob Eaves will present a special award at North Carolina's Future City® Competition for the city design that incorporates the Best Employment Opportunities. The middle school competition is part of his Celebrate North Carolina Initiative.

Who: First Gentleman Bob Eaves, middle school students, educators, representatives from the engineering community

What: Future City Competition

Where: Talley Student Center & Stewart Theater
NCSU
2610 Cates Avenue
Raleigh, NC 27695

When: Saturday, January 15
9:30 a.m. - judging begins
12:30 p.m. - presentation of awards

###